II. FACTS

7. Plaintiff purchased all of the personal property assets of ALPC, LP in March of 2015. The assets included pickup trucks, trailers and miscellaneous equipment. All of the assets transferred to Plaintiff were burdened with Liens held by banks and other lending institutions which far exceeded the value of such assets. These loans included an asset based business loan agreement with Allegiance Bank of Texas in the amount of $226,946. Plaintiff assumed all of the loans, notes and asset based loans associated with the personal property. It was determined that there was no equity value. The sale and transfer of these assets was reviewed by an Appeals officer of the Internal Revenue Service. IRS Appeals raised no issues regarding the sale.

8. ALPC, LP was a Limited Partnership registered with the State of Texas. The General Partner was D&A Holdings, Inc. ALPC, LP conducted no operations or business activities after the date of the sale of assets.

9. ALPC, LP and D&A Holdings, Inc. are no longer in business and have no connection or relationship with Plaintiff other than the asset sale as described above. ALPC, LP has no ownership interest in Plaintiff or in Plaintiff's current business operations. D&A Holdings, Inc. has no ownership interest in Plaintiff or in Plaintiff's current business operations.

10. ALPC, LP does not profit or benefit in any manner from the business operations of Plaintiff. D&A Holdings, Inc. does not profit or benefit in any manner from the business operations of Plaintiff. ALPC, LP and D&A Holdings, Inc. no longer exist.

11. At the time of the asset sale, ALPC, LP owed the Internal Revenue Service a debt associated with 941 taxes for tax periods 4th quarter of 2011 through the 3rd Quarter of 2014. All Trust Fund taxes were fully paid to the Internal Revenue Service prior to ALPC, LP going out of business.

12. On October 25, 2016 the IRS, through its representative D. Jansen, filed Notices of Federal Tax Liens and Notices of Levy on more than 43 entities, including all of Plaintiff's banks and most, if not all, of Plaintiff's customers claiming that Plaintiff is the alter ego of ALPC, LP.

13. The first notice received by Plaintiff that the IRS had determined Plaintiff was the alter ego of ALPC, LP was from its banks and customers. The Internal Revenue Service has now taken much more than $100,000 from Plaintiff based on the Wrongful Levies.

III. PLAINTIFF IS NOT THE ALTER EGO OF ALPC, LP
